A BETTER SOLUTION IS AVAILABLE!

Adopt breed-neutral laws that address the deeds of specific dogs and their owners, rather than banning or restricting an entire breed. Uniformly-enforced animal control laws require all owners, regardless of the breed of dog they own, to be responsible. When paired with strongly-enforced animal control laws (such as leash laws) and increased public education efforts to promote responsible dog ownership, breed-neutral dangerous dog laws better protect communities.