Live Conference in Newport Beach, CA

- Raffles
- CEU's
- Updates from the AOD profession
- Annual membership meeting
- Much more!

Guidelines for Composition:

- Proposals should reflect diversity of membership, including practitioners, academics, students, consultants; federal, state and local governments; and public, private and nonprofits.
- Workshop presentations involve facilitated theater-style learning opportunities. Your presentation must be able to fit into a 1.5 or 3-hour session.
- Keynote speaker requests require completion of this document.
- Program Topics:

The Conference Program Committee will give preference to presentations demonstrating the use of current research and theory. Suggested topics include:

- Clinical Supervision: providing clinical supervision in the SUD profession including cultural competencies and special populations.
- Cultural and Diversity Issues: Ethnic and cultural sensitivity, diversity & treatment needs, sexual orientation, alcoholism among the elderly, adolescent treatment and veteran's issues.
- LGBTQ: Addressing LGBTQ issues within the context of substance use disorder treatment for clients and for staff working with LGBTQ clients.
- Clinical Issues: Co-occurring disorders, aftercare, intervention, relapse prevention, enhancing motivation for change, intake, assessments and documentation specific to cultural needs of the patient.
- Criminal Justice & DUI Issues: Treatment interventions for criminal justice programs, drug courts, inmates, probation, parole, halfway houses, and prison-based programs.
- Ethics and Professional Issues: Ethical concerns within different settings, industry watch-dogs, peer assistance, burnout, stress, humor, peer support, and mentoring. Specific ethics presentations regarding gender, culture and special populations.
- AOD Prevention: The fundamentals of prevention, outcomes and continuum of care.
- Pharmacotherapy: Medical interventions in the treatment of SUD. Medication assisted treatment.
- Personal and Professional Wellness: Focus on the individual AOD professional and other human service providers.
- Private Practice: How to start and/or manage a substance use disorder private practice.
- Managed Care: Integrating managed care and Medi-Cal into an SUD treatment facility.
- Intervention & Referral: Disease model and recovery process. Information, referral, detoxification, treatment modalities.
- Women's Treatment: Domestic violence, sexual assault, parenting, health, and career issues.
- Marketing & Administration: Successful and best practice marketing and admissions strategies.
- Sober living: Providing successful and best practice for Sober living.
- Families: Domestic violence, family dynamics related to addiction, children, spouses, significant others, friends; specific to multicultural family concerns.
- Executive Track: Created for executives, administrators, and future leaders in addiction treatment organizations, the executive and administrator is an intense track about key business and clinical-care topics in the business of treatment and substance use disorders.

*If you have a presentation that is not listed here but is directly or indirectly related to our theme, please submit it for review!

Deadline for Completed Applications is August 15, 2021

General Information

Applications will be judged on originality, perceived interest and need, quality of submission, objectives and references. An effort to balance the conference program will also be a consideration in the selection process. Recognizing the advanced level of attendees, presentations should be addressed to a post-certification level audience.

Presentations may not include sales or marketing of products or services.*

Individuals may not send more than two submissions for the committee to evaluate.

To show our appreciation for presenters' contributions to the educational content of the conference, CCAPP will grant a 25% discount on conference registration fees for each primary presenter chosen. Please contact CCAPP Accounting to receive the discount.

If chosen to present at the CCAPP Eighth Annual CAC conference, the presenter agrees to be recorded on a CD and prepare a paper to be included in a compendium of papers which may be distributed to each participant at the annual CAC conference or posted on the CCAPP website. Presenters also fully agree to grant the CCAPP Weekly Dispatch and other CCAPP publications the first publication rights for one year following the presentation.

If you are a licensed, certified, or registered individual, your credential must be in good standing to present at our annual CAC conference. The conference committee or office may request proof of credential in good standing.

Workshop Materials/Handouts

Presenters must submit any handouts to CCAPP to be uploaded into the online platform. This includes a pdf version of your presentation if you wish to share your slides. CCAPP will not share your presentation slides without your permission.

Presentation slides will need to be uploaded into our online platform. Each slide is converted into an image by the system and therefore will not display any animations. CCAPP will not share your slides with anyone without your permission.

Continuing Education Credits

Please complete the CE section on the following page. In order for attendees to receive credits for attending the conference, they will need to answer test questions taken from each workshop. You will be required to submit four test questions applicable to your presentation.

Audio / Visual

CCAPP will provide a mic (if needed), a projector and screen, and a windows based laptop. Those who wish to use a Mac (your own) should bring relevant adapters. Break-out rooms will not have speakers for sound. CCAPP does not provide other equipment or technical assistance.

Deadline

The deadline for completed applications is August 15, 2021

Release and Authorization for Use, Reproduction and Distribution (VID form- CCAPP)

The sections in bold below are simplified explanations of the “legalese” above. The legalese is the binding agreement, but the simple language does its best to explain what the legalese means.

I, _____, am on this date presenting or participating in a Presentation sponsored by the California Consortium of Addiction Programs and Providers (“CCAPP”). I acknowledge that the Presentation is being captured by CCAPP, with my full knowledge and consent, on film, videotape, digital video, audiotape or digital audio, still photographs (digital, electronic, film, or printed) and/or other recording or storage technology (“Media”). (I agree that CCAPP may record my presentation on audio and video.)

In consideration of my participation in this Presentation sponsored by CCAPP, the visibility it provides, and/or other consideration that may be provided, if any, CCAPP, and/or its licensees or designees may hold, license, market, distribute, display, sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of the Media or any part or derivative work thereof in any media or any other means of distribution or in any other way in which it sees fit, including, without limitation, the creation of any narration, printed matter, or descriptions, presenting the material on a video-on-demand or other online platform. (CCAPP may use the content they are recording and make it available online, or in other ways that it may see fit to do so.)

I do hereby, by my signature below, irrevocably consent to being photographed and/or recorded by CCAPP and to the marketing and distribution of the Media captured for the purposes described above or for any other legal purpose. I understand and acknowledge, now and forever, that ownership and control of copyrights, rights of use, duplication, reproduction, marketing, sale, distribution, resale, and all other ownership, control, intellectual property, privacy, performance and any other rights to the Media, and any derivative works therefrom, whether or not such rights are currently defined by law, are vested exclusively in CCAPP and/or their licensees or designees, and that I hereby relinquish and irrevocably transfer to CCAPP any rights of control, use, resale, copyright, rights of privacy, persona, celebrity and/or publicity, intellectual property, and/or any other legal theory under which I may now or in the future have a claim to the content produced, in consideration of the compensation described above. (I understand that CCAPP may use the content in any way they see fit, and that by signing below, I am giving them rights to use the content as they wish.) I further affirm that no other representations, warranties or agreements, oral or written, have been given or made to me by any party with regard to my agreement to participate in this production, and that the terms of this Release and Authorization for Use, Reproduction and Distribution supersede any other representation(s) made to me, regardless of form, and constitute the sole and complete agreement between me and CCAPP. (This agreement supersedes any oral or written promises, contemporaneous discussions, or other agreements. In other words, what is in this agreement is the final agreement between the parties.) I hereby fully and completely indemnify and release CCAPP, and its employees, contractors, board members, distributors, marketers, associates, clients, and all other entities retained, employed, commissioned by, or representing CCAPP from any and all liability related to the obtaining of or any sale, use, marketing, reproduction, advertising, or distribution of this performance or any part thereof in any form, including, without limitation, liability for any acts which, without such release, may constitute infringement or invasion of any rights of copyright, privacy, persona, or celebrity which I may now have or in the future obtain. (I won’t later come back against CCAPP and won’t hold either party liable for the use of the presentation I am giving as described above.)

I further agree that in the event of any dispute regarding the terms of this agreement, I waive on behalf of myself, my heirs, executors, successors, and assigns, all rights to file suit and agree that all disputes shall be settled by mediation and/or by binding arbitration in the state of California, applying California law, with all legal and arbitration costs borne by the losing party. (If there is a disagreement or dispute in the terms of this Agreement, I agree to use mediation or binding arbitration to settle it instead of filing a lawsuit.)

This release shall be effective against me, my family members, heirs and anyone else who may act as my representatives or in my interest, and all others who may have an interest, now or hereafter, in any of my rights, copyright, privacy, persona or celebrity. This release shall be deemed to have been made in the State of California, United States of America, and shall be subject to the laws thereof (excluding conflicts of laws provisions.) I affirm that I am of legal age and have full capacity to enter into this Agreement and Release, that I have completely read and understood it, and/or have sought clarification on any issues that I do not understand. I am entering into this Agreement and Release of my own free will, without any coercion or other adverse influence of CCAPP or any other person or entity. (The agreement is binding now and in the future, and I am legally able to enter this agreement, and am doing so by my choice, without coercion.)
